My Mother

I will truly miss her smiling face, her quirky humor, and more. My heart will cherish all these things, yes, that's where they'll be stored. My mother made me who I am, a loving mother was she. She guided me all the days of my life until the Lord set her free. I grieve this day with a heavy heart, because my mother is not here for me. But I know that one of these days, soon, my mothers face I'll see. She never strayed from her daily stride, a steadfast trooper was she. My mother was truly a child of God, her life was her living testimony. My mother is now resting from all of her toils, this earth she will no longer see. She is now in heaven with our Savior and Lord, she is now resting peacefully. I'll remember her lovingly the rest of my life, because she was so very special to me.

I'll love you always, mother . . .

Your daughter
